A WEEKEND AWAY

Go on a Marriage Encounter Weekend to:

- escape from your busy everyday life
- put God at the center of your marriage
- rediscover the one you love

Marriage Encounter Weekends begin Friday evening and continue through Sunday afternoon, giving you 44 hours to reconnect with your spouse and rekindle your romance.

Yes, there will be a series of presentations and even a workbook, but the similarity to other workshops or seminars ends there.

This all-inclusive experience includes your hotel room, five meals — and the time you need to restore and improve communication skills and understand your own feelings about various aspects of your marriage.

Trained, certified volunteer couples will share their own life experiences, and you and your spouse will have time to discuss the concepts in the privacy of your own room. At no point will you be required to share in a group setting.

Q. Who should attend?

A. A married man and woman, regardless of age, who want the best possible relationship! If you've been married less than one year, we suggest you consider attending an Engaged Encounter Weekend.

Q. What does the weekend cost?

A. A $50 non-refundable application fee is required with your application. At the end of the weekend, you'll be told the cost for the weekend, and you will be given the opportunity to make a freewill donation. If you'd like to know the cost in advance, please contact the local reservation couple. You can find that information at encounter.org or by calling 866.633.3862.

Q. Is this like other seminars or Bible studies?

A. This is a couple-oriented experience. There are no group activities. Neither is the weekend a Bible study, lecture series or social weekend. This private and quiet weekend lets you and your spouse concentrate on each other — deepening your awareness of each other and the importance of God in your marriage.

Q. Can couples of any denomination attend?

A. Couples from all faith expressions and those with no church affiliation are welcome.
